

The 15 Best Residential Architects in Pinecrest, Florida

Last Updated on May 24, 2021

Recognized as a place with a high quality of life, Pinecrest has been dubbed Tree City, Playful City, and a Community of Respect. Many residents enjoy the city's natural beauty and man-made parks, including the famous Pinecrest Gardens that give the city its signature name as a Tree City.

With its scenic backgrounds and convenient location, Pinecrest is an ideal location for growing families. Many of the homes on this list are waterfront residences or structures built in iconic Californian styles, including Spanish and Mediterranean. Regardless of the design, the firms on this list are the best residential architects in Pinecrest. They have been featured for having years of experience in service to the city locals and have highly skilled teams with admirable work ethics. Combining these elements, many of these firms have become recognized by magazines like Luxe, Space Magazine, Coral Living, and South Florida Business Journal. These firms are also affiliated with industry organizations like the American Institute of Architects (AIA), the U.S. Green Building Council (USGBC), and the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID).

Hamed Rodriguez Architects Inc.

275 Minorca Ave., Coral Gables, FL 33134

Hamed Rodriguez Architects Inc. is a firm led by Hamed Rodriguez has been recognized for his ability to easily translate ideas into both commercial and residential designs. The firm's work can be spotted across the U.S. and abroad, and its expertise has been widely recognized. Aside from being a LEED accredited professional that designed the first LEED Gold building in Miami-Dade County, the firm also received the AIA Henry Adams Medal. its modern and contemporary homes have also been featured in various publications, including South Florida Luxury Guide Spring, Coral Gables, and Pinecrest Lifestyle Magazine.